

In a few Days will be published, in One large Volume Quarto, with an elegant Engraving of the Author,

THE
HISTORY of the UNION BETWEEN
ENGLAND and SCOTLAND;
WITH

A Collection of Original Papers relating thereto.

By the celebrated DANIEL DE FOE.

With an Introduction, in which the Consequences and Probability of a like Union between this Country and Ireland are considered,

By JOHN LEWIS DELOLME,

Author of the Work on the Constitution of England.

To which will be prefixed a Life of the Author. A copious Index will also be given by the Rev. SAMUEL AYSCOUGH, Compiler of the Catalogue of MSS. in the British Museum, hitherto undescribed, 1782.

The Union between England and Scotland, being an extremely interesting Event, has led the Publisher to imagine, that a New Edition of this Work of De Foe, which is grown very scarce, would be acceptable to the Public, especially at the present Time, when the Situation of Affairs in Ireland induces many Persons to wish, that a similar Union between Great Britain and that Kingdom may take place, as it may cause such an Union, if not to be effected, at least to be proposed, and to become, for a Time, the Subject of Debate in both Countries.

"I was," says De Foe himself, in his Appeal to Honour and Justice, p. 50. "from my first entering into the Knowledge of Public Matters, and have ever been to this Day, a sincere Lover of the Constitution of my Country; zealous for Liberty, and the Protestant Interest; but a constant Follower of moderate Principles, a vigorous Opposer of hot Measures in all Parties: I never once changed my Opinion, my Principles, or my Party; and let what will be said of changing Sides, this I maintain, that I never once deviated from the Revolution Principles, nor from the Doctrine of Liberty and Property, on which it was founded."

London: Printed for JOHN STOCKDALE, opposite Burlington House, Piccadilly.
N. B. A few Copies are printed on Royal Paper.

* * De Foe's History of the Union being very little known, the following Article of Union, from the Index, will convey some Idea of what is to be found in it,

I N D E X.

UNION of the Kingdoms of ENGLAND and SCOTLAND.

INTRODUCTION.

INTRODUCTION.

	Page.
T HE first Parliament sits with applause	1
Endangered by the French invasion	2
Strengthened by the French invasion, causing unanimity in defence of the Union	11
State of religion in Scotland at the Union	16
Cafe of the drawbacks on salt fish exported from Scotland, from the time of making the Act of Union to the 1st of May	31

	Page.
Henry VIII. makes another proposaf of a match between his son Edward and a daughter of James	48
Renewed by the council	49
Broke off by the French and Popish parties	49
Proposed in 1604, by James I. at which time Commissioners were appointed, with their names	51
Articles were agreed on by the Commissioners, who present them to the King, who

UNION OF THE KINGDOMS,

THE ORIGIN OF IT TRACED OUT	33	Nothing more done till 1660	53
The strange opposition made to it	34	Commissioners appointed for settling commerce, 1666	53
The first coalition with Edw. I.	36	A Union proposed to both Parliaments, in 1667, but nothing done in it	53
First project of a Union in the same reign	36	Re-assumed in 1670	53
Always the wish of both nations	38	Transcript of the Treaty	54
Projected through a marriage between the son of Edw. I. and Margaret of Norway	38	Preliminary Articles	57
Advantages from that marriage	39	Articles of the Union	57
Both nations see the advantages of a Union, and not the act of a few overawed by the king	40	Proceedings of the Commissioners on the Articles	57
An end put to the Union by the death of Margaret	42	Commissioners adjourned, Nov. 8, 1670, and never met more	62
Dismal consequences of this disappointment	42	Obstructions to former Treaties of Union.
Again attempted by the marriage of James IV. of Scotland, and Margaret daughter of Henry VII.	46	The death of the Maid of Norway, Popery, French interest, home tyranny and court intrigues	62
And again, by a proposal of Henry VIII. for James V. to marry the Princess Mary	47	The opinion of Will. III. on an Union	64
This match prevented by French and Popish councils	48	Occurrences which tended to prevent a Union proposed in 1702	65
		Viz. the settling an African or Indian Company in Scotland	65
		The

	Page.
The affair of Glenco	68
Difficulties about the succession and limitations	73
The seizing the ship Worcester, execution of Capt. Green and three of the crew	78
The Act of Security	83
A crisis in which we must either fight with the Scotch, or unite with them	91
The Ministry conclude to grant the Scotch what they ought to have, and to gain of them what they ought to grant	91

UNION OF THE KINGDOMS, THE LAST TREATY.

Care is taken to remove all obstacles	94
A concurring Providence assists in bringing it about	95
Committee of Parliament appointed to examine the exports and imports between England and Scotland	96
The Queen proposes to the Scots Parliament to revive the Treaty of Union; who refuse to treat until the act to prevent the dangers of the Act of Security is repealed, and which is repealed	97
Inclination to Union, universal	97
Obstacles to the Union from the nobility	98
Becomes popular by the joining of the two Whig parties	99
Scribblers harrahs the world with their schemes, in which they consider the advantages to the nation to which they belong	100
General retribution in a Treaty of Union, like a man giving presents to a lady whom he desires to make his wife	101
Mistake in looking for partial instead of general advantages to one vast united body	101
Brought to pass not by gaining from, but by yielding to one another	102
A beautiful creature, admirable in its texture	102
A compleat and indissoluble Union must depend upon equalities of privileges, and equalities of burdens	102
Oliver Cromwell hit on the only step to fix a Union	103
Formed on Olive's scheme	104
Commissioners meet to consider of the method of proceeding	105
Agree to meet apart, and give their resolutions in writing	105

	Page.
Commissioners had only one public conference, and that on the number of representatives in Parliament	106
Note of the speakers, and arguments on this conference	106
Commission to the persons appointed for Scotland	106
Names of the Commissioners for Scotland	108, 113
Commission to the persons appointed for England	110
Names of the Commissioners	110, 113
The Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England, his speech on opening the commissions	114
The Earl of Seafield's speech on the part of Scotland	115

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMISSIONERS.

Articles of Preliminaries	115
England and Scotland to be united under the name of Great Britain	116
Proceedings of the Commissioners on the succession	116
The Commissioners of Scotland give in proposals to partial, rather than a general Union, which the English Commons refuse to treat on, insisting on a general Union	116
Observation on the minutes of the three first days	117
The Scotch Commissioners agree to the name of Great Britain to the representation by one Parliament, and to the succession in the Princess Sophia and her heirs, being Protestants, and a full Union of Trade, &c.	119
A Committee for revising the minutes appointed	119
The treators on the part of Scotland called traitors by the rabble of Edinburgh	120
Proceedings on an equality of taxes, &c.	120
Committee appointed to consider matters to them referred	121
Committee of England deliver a state of the revenue, income and debts of England	122
Committee of Scotland deliver a state of the revenue and debts of Scotland	123
Private rights of corporations reserved to be considered	123
Land-tax at 1s in the pound, 12,000l.	123
Neither Kingdom to be burthened with debts contracted before the Union	123
Customs	123

	Page.		Page.
Customs of England at the Union 1,341,550 l. per ann. ———— 123		atives in the Commons, and 16 in the Lords, which is agreed to by the Com- mons of Scotland ———— 163
Excise of England at the Union 947,602 l. per ann. ———— 123		Observation on the proceedings for uniting the Parliament ———— 164
Customs of Scotland, let at 30,000 l. per ann. ———— 124		Peers of Scotland to be esteemed Peers of Great Britain ———— 166
Excise of Scotland, let at 35,000 l. per ann. ———— 124		Proceedings on the privileges of the Peers of Scotland ———— 167, 170, 172
Revenue of Scotland not appropriated to pay any debt ———— 124		Proceedings on the coinage 167, 168, 184, 186
Difficulties on account of the national debts ———— 124		On weights and measures 167, 168, 184
Necessity of a scale of equalities — 124		Rights of corporations and companies to be reserved ———— 169
Proceedings for regulation of Excise 125		Proceedings for the regulations of ships 169, 171, 172, 184
Difficulties in fixing a fair land tax 129		To be only one Great-seal, but the seal of Scotland to be made use of in matters of private right and justice 171, 181, 184
Proceedings on stamp duties — 137, 144		Proceedings respecting the packing of her- rings, white fish and salmon 171, 180
The duties on salt 127, 138, 144, 147, 152, 155, 162, 167, 169, 172		Observation on the proceedings on the pri- vileges of the Peers ———— 173
On the duty on windows ———— 127		Observation on the proceedings for the re- gulation of shipping 175, 180
On the duty on coal and culm 127, 144		Proceedings for adjusting the equivalent 175, 176, 182, 185, 186, 187
On the duty on malt ———— 127		Objections to the African Company by the Commons of England, who offer to regard the losses, &c. ———— 176
On the duty on cinders — 138, 144, 147		Out of the equivalent allowed to Scotland, the debts of Scotland to be paid, the fund of the African Company discharged, the loss on the coin to be made good, and the surplus applied to the encouragement of fisheries, manufactures, &c. — 177
The Queen's speech to the Commissioners, May 21, 1706 ———— 139		The Queen's speech to the Commissioners, June 26 ———— 180
Some taxes paid in England, impracticable to be paid in Scotland ———— 140		Four Commissioners appointed to draw up the Articles agreed on 180, 183
Quota of future taxes to be settled by Parlia- ment ———— 147		The crosses of St. Andrew and St. George to be joined in flags, &c. 183, 185, 186
Laws of Trade, Customs, and Excise, to be the same in Scotland, as England 148		Privy seal, signet, and other seals, to be con- tinued, but altered to suit the Union 181, 184, 186
Other laws of Scotland to be in force, but alterable by Parliament ———— 148		An estimate of what the revenue of Scotland may produce after the Union, 216,000 l. 188
Laws of private right in Scotland to remain, except in cases of evident utility 148		An account of the value of the annual sums contributed out of the customs of Scotland, according to the present produce, towards the anticipated funds of the Customs of England ———— 189
Courts of judicature and judiciary to remain as before the Union ———— 148		And of the Excise ———— 190
No causes in the Kingdom of Scotland to be cognizable in the courts of England 149		The
A Court of Exchequer to be erected in Scot- land ———— 149
Rights of Royal boroughs to remain 149
Admiralty jurisdiction to be under the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain 155, 156
Commons of England propose 38 members to be sent from Scotland to the House of Commons ———— 156
Court of Admiralty, for private right, to be continued in Scotland ———— 157
Commons of Scotland wish for a greater number of representatives, and propose a conference on the subject ———— 157
Scheme respecting right of appeal in private cases ———— 162
Commons of England propose 45 represen-

I N D E X.

	Page.		Page.
The Union to take place May 1, 1707	191	concern for the good of their country, and by those who had supposed it would be lost in Parliament	209
Oaths and declarations to be made and taken by the representatives	192	Opposed by pretending to amend what they meant to destroy	210
The Articles of Union signed by the Commissioners July 22, 1706	194	Sixteen days spent in reading the Articles and discoursing on them	210
Articles of Union presented to the Queen, and the commission closed, July 23, 1706	194	Moved that the Parliament now proceed to approve them or not	210
Speeches of the Commissioners to the Queen	194	Moved the further consideration be postponed, that the sentiments of the Parliament of England and of their constituents might be known	210
The Queen's answer	196	Both motions lost	210
The Articles of Union, as concluded by the Commissioners at London	197	The opponents endeavour to close the bill with things impossible for the Parliament of England to pass	211
Article I. Name and standards	197	The prudent conduct of the Duke of Queensberry, her Majesty's High Commissioner	212
II. Succession	197	The Queen's letter to the Parliament of Scotland at opening of the session	214
III. To be represented by one Parliament	198	Duke of Queensberry's speech at the opening of the session	215
IV. Full freedom and intercourse of Trade and Navigation	198	Earl of Seafield's speech	216
V. Ships of Scotland	198	The Treaty ordered to be printed	218
VI. Encouragements and restrictions on trade, with the customs and duties to be the same in both countries	199	Opposed by four parties; 1. The professed Jacobite party; 2. The Episcopal party; 3. A mistaken people; 4. Those who opposed it upon political enigma, &c. who stir up all other parties to opposition	219
VII. Excise to be the same in both countries	199	A general alarm in Scotland against the Treaty. The poor for taxes and want of employment: the merchants for excessive customs: every thing being left to the disposal of a British Parliament: Episcopacy: and lastly, as a breach of the Covenant and Solemn League	221
VIII. Salt duties and export of fish, &c.	199	Mr. Hodges writes a large book against it, containing the most palpable untruths	223
IX. Land Tax	200	The Articles read over one by one and debated on	224
X. Stamp Duties	200	Innumerable pamphlets published against it	225
XI. Window duties	200	A general cry of "No Union" and the traiters called traitors	226
XII. Coal, Culm, and Cinder duties	200	The various parties join in opposing the Union as a common evil	227
XIII. Malt duty	200	Proceedings without doors against the Union	230
XIV. No former duties laid by the part of England to extend to Scotland, except provided for in the Articles, but to pay all future duties	200	Endeavours to procure an adjournment on the pretence of consulting their constituents	230
XV. Equivalent	201	Several boroughs wrote letters to their representatives,
XVI. Coin	203
XVII. Weights and Measures	203
XVIII. Laws of Trade, Customs, and Excise	203
XIX. Court of Session and College of Justice	204
XX. Heretable offices, &c.	205
XXI. Privileges of Royal boroughs	205
XXII. Representatives to be sent to the Lords and Commons	205
XXIII. Privileges of the Peers	207
XXIV. Great Seal and other seals	207
XXV. All laws, contrary to the terms of the Union, to be repealed	208
PROGRESS OF THE TREATY IN SCOTLAND	209
No part taken by those who had no great

	Page.		Page.
sentatives, requiring them not to vote for the Union	231	ciled, and must have overthrown the Treaty	254
Public Addresses to Parliament for the same purpose	231	Attempts to make the Church a tool for opposing it	255
"No incorporating Union," was the word	232	Commissioners of Assembly address against the Union	255
A string of Addresses against an incorporating Union	233	An act for the security of the Church, read and ordered to be printed	255
A public fast proposed, and by some objected to	233	Endeavours are made to persuade the people, that the act is not a sufficient security to the Church	255
A public fast appointed by the Church	235	Some of the Commissioners in the Committee withdrew themselves on account of the warmth of some of the ministers	256
The Union opposed by the Dukes of Hamilton and Athol	236	Difficulties debated on in the Committee	256
The High Commissioner insulted	236	Objections to the Bishops sitting in the British Parliament	257
Sir Patrick Johnston ill-treated by the mob	237	Proceedings on a second address from the Commissioners to Parliament	257
Members of Parliament grossly insulted, their windows broken, &c.	238	Protest against the second Address	258
Edinburgh delivered from the terror of a mob, by the appearance of the guards	238	The protest recorded with answers to it	258
Pleas for and against bringing in the guards	240	The Act of Security voted	259
False reports of various parts of the country being in arms	241	Letters and addresses from various parts of the country sent to the Commissioners	260
Affairs of the Church left to be settled by the Parliament of each country	243	Various attempts to make the Commissioners protest against the Union, but in vain	260
Those who had least regard for the Church, made the most noise respecting its safety	244	The prudence of Wishart, Moderator of the Assembly and Commissioner.	260
Convention of Royal Boroughs address Parliament against the Union	244	The disputes kept from the pulpit	263
How far the Covenant was against it	248	Country tumults against it, which tend to open the eyes of the opposers, who in the end choose rather to agree to the Union, than to the admission of civil war and Popish or tyrannical powers	264
Opposed by the Cameronians	249	The ease with which the common people are imposed on and persuaded to join in a mob	265
The Articles, with the names of the Commissioners, burnt by about 200 Cameronians at Dumries, who also fix a seditious paper on the Cross	250	Account of the Glasgow rabble	266
Their numbers exaggerated to 6,000, 7,000, or even 10,000	250	They sign a mob address	270
The paper printed at Edinburgh	250	The little respect which ought to be paid to such addresses	270
The Cameronians after this behave with great calmness and discretion	251	The second Glasgow rabble	271
The Articles again read, to be voted on	252	Finlay, a Jacobite, becomes their leader	274
The first Article voted and approved November 4, which had been twice a day of happiness to this kingdom, by the birth of Will. III. and the day on which he landed at Torbay	253, 333	Marches at the head of 45 men, to meet other discontents at Hamilton	275
The Articles disputed article by article, clause by clause, and word by word	254	Return to Glasgow and is seized by the Queen's troops	279
Amendments made by the Parliament of Scotland	254	Underhand proceedings of the opponents to the Union	281
The opponents endeavour to introduce alterations, which could not have been recon-		Tumults were raised under pretence of exercising the sensible men	281
		The

	Page.		Page.
The Parliament of Scotland pass an act and proclamation against it	282	Names of proteftors, against these proceedings	301
The affairs of the English debts stated	283	Observations on these proceedings	302
PROCEEDINGS IN THE PARLIAMENT OF SCOTLAND, MET OCT. 3, 1706	285	Article 18 again read, also articles 19, 20, 21, read	305
Duke of Queensberry appointed to represent the Queen	285	The same articles read, also articles 22, 23	305
Several Lords take the Oath of Allegiance	286	Articles 22, 23, again read, Oct. 25, also articles 24, 25	305
Articles of Union ordered to be read	286	Moved and carried Nov. 1, to proceed on the articles	306
Ordered, the minutes of the proceedings of the Commissioners be printed	286	Moved also to be adjourned, until the sense of the nation be known; the motion lost	306
Reasons for and against printing the Articles	287	Addresses against the Union, from Mid Lothian, Linlithgow, and Perthshire	307
Articles of Union again read, Oct. 12	288	Observations on these proceedings	307
Objection against the second reading; consulting constituents	289	Motions and debates before voting on the first article, Nov. 2.	309
A proposal for a general reading, but adjourned	289	Observations on the above proceedings	310
Motion for postponing the consideration for eight days, but thrown out	290	The plea of settling the Church, made both by the enemies of the Church and opponents of the Union	310
First article read, Oct. 15, and adjourned	290	The speech of Mr. Seton of Pitmedden, one of the Commissioners before the Articles are voted for, in which he shews the advantages and disadvantages of the Union, (for particulars, see Seton)	312
The address of the Commissioners of the General Assembly read, and promised to be considered before the vote on the Treaty	292	Lord Beilhaven's famous speech against it (for particulars, see Beilhaven)	317
The second Article read, Oct. 17	292	Sterling, Dumbarton, Linlithgow, Dunkeld and Dysert, address against an incorporating Union	329
Articles 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, read the same day	293	Proceedings in the Parliament of Scotland on the first article, Nov. 4.	329
Observation on the proceedings on the Articles	293	Duke of Athole and many others protest against the Union	330
Articles 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15, read and discoursed on	295	The first article voted	331
Observation on the proceedings on the above articles	295	Names of those who voted for and against, ordered to be printed	331
Articles 16, 17, 18, read, and discoursed on	297	Observations on the design of procuring addresses, and on the addresses themselves	331
Observations on the proceedings on the above articles	297	Counter addresses thought of, but, as it would have been a kind of polling the nation, laid aside	331
A committee appointed to consult on the equivalent	297	Some counter addresses signed, but never presented	332
Article 11, again read, Oct. 23	298	Struggles against it, now made in Parliament only	332
Observations on the proceeding of Oct. 23	299	Many objections raised, which were not grounded on fact	332
Great tumults, both in the street and in Parliament	299	A federal Union offered for the purpose of throwing out the general Union	332
Great uneasinesses raised on account of the duties on salt and beer	300	Proceeding in the Parliament of Scotland on the
Guards brought to Edinburgh, and a proclamation issued against tumultuary meetings, by order of the Privy Council	301
These proceedings approved by Parliament	301

	Page.		Page.
the Act of Security, 334, 335, 337, 339		Lord Chancellor allowed to have his name printed with those who approve of Art. II.	347
The Lord Chancellor desires his name to be recorded among those who voted for the Union	334	Compared with Satan's deceiving Eve	348
Commissioners of the royal burghs, Renfrew, Fife, Falkland, and Hamilton, address against the Union	334	Observation on Lord Beilhaven's speech	351
Representation and petition of the commission of the General Assembly of the Church presented	335	Kirkcudbright, Crawford, Crawford-John, Couper in Fife, and Lanerk, address against the Union	353
Addresses from Tulliallan, Dumferling, Borrowstouness, Blantyre, and Anendale, against the Union	335	Marquis of Annandale and others, protest against the third article	354
Supply of eight months granted for the Queen	335	Names of the protestors	355
Observations on the representation and petition	336	Observation on the proceedings on the third article	355
Observations on passing the supply	336	Arguments for and against a union of Parliament	356
Forfar, Camburnethan, Camburlang, Kilbryde, Bothwell, and Old Munkland, address against the Union	337	Speech of Mr. Seton, junior, in favour of the third article	360
Insufficiency of the Act of Security, made a plea against the Union	338	Fundamentals of Government alterable by the supreme power of a nation	361
Crail, Easter Munkland, Shotts, Dallerf Stenhouse, a body of people in the South and Western Isles, and Kirkcudbright, address against the Union	339	Sovereignty and independency of Scotland surrendered to the French by treaty April 4, 1554, and again to the English at the Union of the Crowns, will be restored by this Union	362
Lord Beilhaven and others, protest against the Act of security	339	Objections against the number of members in Parliament removed	362
Names of the protestors	339	Complaint made to Parliament of the High Commissioner being ill-treated by the mob, and enquiry referred to the Committee on the Equivalent	364
Names of those who voted for and against the Act of Security, to be printed	340	St. Andrews addresses against the Union	365
Observations on the proceedings on the Act of security	340	Proceedings on the fourth Article	365, 367
Colleges of Scotland secured by the act	340	Observations on the tumult, in which the Lord Commissioner was ill-treated	365
Difficulties on account of the Test	340	Paisley addresses against the Union	367
The Lord Chancellor desired to have his name printed with those who voted for the Act of Security	343	Proceedings on the 5th Article	365, 367
Covington, Carstairs, Lymontoun, Liberton, Quothquan, Dunlyre, Rutherglen, Carnwarth and Lanerk, address against the Union	344	Observations on the tumult in which the Lord Commissioners was ill-treated	365
Proceedings on Article II.	344, 345	Paisley addresses against the Union	367
Representation and petition of the general Assembly, on the increase of Popery, &c.	345	Proceedings on the 5th Article,	367, 369
Glasgow, Gorbels, Biggar, Lanerk, address against the Union	345	Observations on the proceedings on the 4th and 5th Articles	368, 370
Earl Marischal and others protest against the second article	346	Glasgow, Culrofs, Salino, Carnock, Torie, Sterling, Annandale, Innerkeithing, address against the Union.	368
Names of the protestors	346	The opposers of the Union had proposed objections to be made in the Parliament of England, to the alterations they had caused to be made in the Parliament of Scotland	371
		Roxburgh, Annau, Lochmabban, Lesmahago, address against the Union	373
		Proceedings on the sixth Article	373, 375, 397, 399
		Observations

	Page.
Observations on the proceedings on the sixth Article	373, 375
Acts presented from various places for the continuance of duties for various private purposes, as repairing bridges, harbours, &c.	372
Observations on these acts	374
Mid-Lothian address against the Union	375
Proceedings on the seventh Article	376, 378, 385, 388
St. Ninian and Dunbar address against the Union	377
Observations on the proceedings on the seventh Article	378, 385
Calculations respecting the Excise on beer	380
Proceedings in Parliament respecting the Glasgow rabble	382
Observations on the proceedings	383
That part of the Act of Security repealed which authorized the arming and disciplining the sensible men, with observations on these proceedings	383, 385
Air and Burnt-Island address against the Union	385
Proceedings on the 8th Article	386, 388
Observations on the proceedings on the 8th Article	387, 388
Air, Glenkens, and New Galloway, address against the Union	387
Proceedings on the 9th Article	388
Proceedings on the 10, 11th, 12th, and 13th Articles	388
Proceedings on the 14th Article	388, 389, 391
Observations on the proceedings	388, 389, 391
Report of the Committee of equivalent	393
Proceedings on the 15th Article	393
Lord Beilhaven and others protest against the proceedings on this Article	394
Names of the Protestors	394
Observations on the proceedings	394
Equivalent not understood in Scotland	396
National Debt of England at the Union 20 millions	397
Douglas, Carmichael, and Petinean, address against the Union	397
Report of the Committee on the sixth Article	398

	Page
Observations on the report	398
Dumblain, Hamilton, Caputh, Lethendy, Alyth, Kinlock, Etrol, Kilspeidie, Kinaird, Inchtur, Longforgan, St. Madoes, Kinfauns, Logie, Airth, Larbert, Dunipace, and Deny, address against the Union	399
Second, 3d, and 4th reports of the Committee on the 6th Article	400
Observations on the reports of the Committee	401
Queries to the Presbyterian Noblemen, &c. ordered to be burnt by the common hangman	402
Fifth, 6th, and 7th reports of the Committee on the 6th Article	403
Proceedings on the 5th, 6th, and 7th reports	403
Observations on the proceedings	405
Private rights that affected the trade of either kingdoms to be purchased	405
Berwick addresses against the Union	410
A print on the dependency of the Crown ordered to be burnt by the hangman	410
The 9th report of the Committee on the 6th article	410
The 6th Article approved	412
Proceedings on the 8th Article	412, 416, 418, 412, 421, 423, 425, 430
Observations on the proceedings on the 6th and 8th Articles	412
State of the trade between Scotland and France	413
State of the trade between Scotland and England	414
The Scotch linens advanced 2d. an ell in the first year after the Union	414
140,000 bolls of corn exported in the first year after the Union	415
Seven or eight ships sent to the English plantations in the first year	415
Three or four ships return with wines from Italy and Portugal, in return for fish	415
In the open trade with France used to pay a balance of 100,000l.	415
In the trade with England Scotland will receive 200,000l.	415
Reports of the Committee on the 8th Article	416
Observations on the reports	417
Lowder, Chainhukirk, and Calder, address against	b

	Page.		Page.
against the Union	418	Names of those who adhered to the Duke of
Proceedings on the drawback on salt-fish	420	Athol's protest	461
Observations on the proceedings	420	Earl of Abercorn's protest against part of the Proceedings on the drawbacks on salt beef		22d Article	462
and pork	421, 423	Observations on the proceedings on the 22d
Observations on the proceedings	421, 423	Article	462
Mayboll, Kirkmichael, Gervan, Kirkef-		Earl of Marchmont and others' protest against wald, Barr, and Carrick, address against		the four protests of the Duke of Athol, the Union	425	the Earl of Buchan, G. Lockhart, and
The Duke of Athol and others' protest		Walter Stuart	463
against the 8th Article	426	Names of the counter-protestors	463
Names of the protestors	426	Lord Balmerino, and others, protest against
Observations on the proceedings	427	the counter-protest	464
Proceedings on the 15th Article	430, 438	Names of those who joined Lord Balmerino
Observations on the proceedings	431, 440	his protest	464
Mr. Baron Clerk's opinion on the 15th Ar-		Agreed that none of these protests be inserted
ticle	432	in the minutes, but entered in the records
Letters are written to the Addressers in			465
every part of Scotland, desiring them to		Observations on these proceedings	466
assemble at Edinburgh, on pretence of		Perth addresses against a Union	467 waiting the effects of their addresses, with		Proceedings on the 23d Article	470
the proceedings of Parliament thereon		Observations on the proceedings	471
	435	Proceedings on the 24th Article	474
A proclamation against the addressers com-		Lyon King at Arms gives in a memorial on
ing to Edinburgh	435	the 24th Article	474
Protest against some part of the proclama-		The 25th Article approved	474
tion	436	Observations on these proceedings	475
Observations on these proceedings	436	The Articles debated from Oct. 3, to Jan.
Only three Presbyteries in the whole king-		14, when they were all approved of	475
dom addressed, viz. Lanerk, Hamilton,		Draught of an Act for ratifying the Union, and Dumblain	438	given in	476
Proceedings on the 16th Article	444	With proceedings thereon	476, 477, 479
Proceedings on the 17th Article	445	Observations on the proceedings	476
Proceedings on the 18th Article	445, 450	Protest for the Duke of Douglas, for privi-
Proceedings on the 19th Article	445, 448	leges which he claimed	478
	451	Duke of Hamilton's protest claiming some
Observations on these proceedings	446	of the privileges claimed for the Duke of
Abercorn, Earl of, protests against part of		Douglas	478
the 18th Article	450	Act for security passed	477
Aberdeen, Kincardine, Stonehaven, and Pe-		OF THE ACT OF RATIFICATION AFTER IT
terhead, address against a Union	456	WAS PAST THE PARLIAMENT OF SCOT-
Proceedings on the 20th Article	456	LAND TILL THE EXEMPLIFICATION OF
Proceedings on the 21st Article	456	IT BY THE PARLIAMENT OF ENGLAND
Proceedings on the 22d Article	457, 460		481
	463, 464, 467	Successes abroad tend much to the ac-
Six different protests against the 22d Article,		complishment of the Union	481
viz. Duke of Athol, Earl of Buchan,		Discouragements to the enemies of the Union
George Lockhart, of Carnwath, Walter			482
Stuart, Earl of Errol Lord High Consta-		Reasons why the French might wish to preble, and Earl Marischal	460	vent it	482
Names who adhere to the Earl of Buchan's		The English Parliament met Dec. 3, 1706
protest	461		482
		The

	Page.		Page.
The Queen's speech to her Parliament	483	Proceedings on a motion against allowing Extraordinary disposition of England for		expences to the Representatives of Scot-
the Union	484	land	500, 501
The treaty read in the House of Commons		Observations on the proceedings	500
of England Jan. 22	484	Peers to vote by proxy	502
Each Article read and voted singly in a		Observations on the proceedings	502
Committee of the whole House	484	Proceedings on the manner of elections, on
Some opposition to it in general in the		the plantation of Kirks, proclamation re-
Lords, but no amendment offered	484	specting coin, and the Act against Po-
Some protests against it in the Lords	484	pery	504
An Act of security for the church of England		Observations on the proceedings	504 prepared by the Bishops	484	The election of the first Representatives of
The Act passed both Houses on the 4th of		of Scotland by Parliament, with the names
March, and the Queen passed it on the		of the Peers and Commons elected	507
6th	485	Observations on the proceedings	508
The Queen's speech at passing the Act of		Proceedings on the sum to be allowed to the
Union	486	African Company	511, 512, 513, 517
The original treaty lodged in the Tower,		Report of the Committee	513
and an exemplification of it under the		The sum stiled to be allowed to the Afri-
Great Seal sent to Scotland	487	can Company	232, 884 l. 5 s. 6 d.
MINUTES OF THE PARLIAMENT OF SCOT-		Orders respecting the payment	518
TAND CONTINUED	487	Proceedings on the coin	520
Proceedings on a motion to insert the peti-		Observations on the proceedings	521
tionary part of the representations of the		The exemplification of the treaty read before
General Assembly in the minutes, rejected	487	the Parliament of Scotland, with the Lord
Proceedings on choosing the first Represen-		Commissioner's speech on the occasion	522
tatives	488, 489, 492, 493	Observations on the proceedings	523
Observations on the proceedings	488	Several petitions respecting private rights	524
The Duke of Hamilton and others protest		Some of the petitioners, and others, recom-
against the proceedings	489	mended to her Majesty	525
William Cockran, of Kilmarnock, also pro-		Several private Acts passed	526
tests	490	Close of the Parliament of Scotland, with
Adherents to both protests	490	her Majesty's High Commissioner's speech	526
Observations on the proceedings	491	An exact copy of the Act of Ratification,
Earl of Cromerty protests in favour of the		with the Articles at large	527
shire of Cromerty	493	Copy of the exemplification under the Great
Thirty Representatives to be chosen by the		Seal of England, as transmitted to the
Barons, and 15 by the counties	493	Parliament of Scotland	543
Proceedings respecting persons eligible	494	TRANSACTIONS SUBSEQUENT TO THE
Observations on the proceedings	495	UNION	675
Proceedings respecting the representation and		Disputes on the 4th Article on taxes, customs,
manner of election	497, 504	prohibitions, &c.	567
James Sinclair's protest respecting the re-		Between the passing of the Act and the Union, presentation for the shire of Caithness	497	the Scotch merchants import great quan-
Moved that the Commissioners have their		ties of wines, brandies, salt, &c. on expences allowed them, with the sums		the low Scotch Duties, in hopes of allowed to each, and the money to be paid		sending them to England after the Union out of the equivalent	499	Duty-free	568
Allowance made also to the Commissioners		The English merchants send quantities of
of 1702, for their expences	500	goods

goods, particularly tobacco, to Scotland, and receive the drawback of Duties, in hopes of returning them to England Duty-free	Page. 568	Alterations on the constitution of Scotland summed up	Page. 600
Proceedings in the Parliament of England to remedy these abuses	569	Alterations on the laws	601
An Act passed the Commons, but rejected by the Lords, on a want of power before the Union took place, to pass such an Act	570	Alterations on the trade	602
These wines and brandies are sent to London in about 40 ships, which are all seized by the officers of the Customs on their arrival in the Thames	572	APPENDIX.
The opinion of the judges taken, who vary much	573	Order of the Commissioners of General Assembly for a day of prayer and supplication, N° A x.	606
The merchants permitted to land the goods on giving security to abide the judgment of the British Parliament; those who do not comply with it have their goods, on being served with a writ of Devenerunt out of the Exchequer	573	Act of the Commissioners concerning solemn prayer and humiliation	607
All prosecutions stopped by a vote of the Commons	573	Petition of the Commissioners of the General Assembly to the Duke of Queensberry, N° B x.	608
Proceedings on settling the State of the nation after the Union, viz. the Customs, Excise, the Equivalent, Petty Justice, the Forces, and the Coin	574	Proclamation against tumults and rabbles, N° C x.	610
Public affairs left to the Privy Council	574	Address of the General Convention of the Royal boroughs to the Lord High Commissioners, N° D x.	613
The Foot Guards of Scotland received as English Guards, the command given to the Marquis of Lothian and clothed after the English manner	574	Reasons [of the Glasgow rabble] for burning the Articles, &c. N° E x.	614
Proceedings on settling the Customs and Excise	575	Overture of an Act for the security of the church, N° F x.	616
Public clamours against seizures	582	Representation and petition of the Commission of the General Assembly to the Duke of Queensberry, N° G x.	618
Difficulties respecting the Excise on beer	583	Reasons of W. Wishart against the representation and petition, N° H x.	620
Names of the Commissioners of Excise	585	Modest animadversions on the reasons, &c.	623
Difficulties in settling the equivalent	585	Representations and petitions of the Commission of the General Assembly to the High Commissioner, N° K x.	625
The African Company fully paid	592	Address of the Presbytery of Dumblane to Parliament, N° L x.	626
Proceedings for the settlement of justice in Scotland	592	Address of the Barons, &c. of Kirkenbright, N° M x.	627
Privy Council of Scotland dissolved by the Parliament of Great-Britain	594	Address of the Presbytery of Hamilton, N° N x.	627
An Act passed for rendering the Union more compleat	594	Letter from the Commission of the General Assembly to the Presbytery of Hamilton, N° O x.	629
Alterations in the criminal process	595	Answer of the Presbytery of Hamilton, N° P x.	630
Proceedings for the reform of coin in Scotland	596	Address of the Burgh of New Galloway, N° Q x.	631
Proceedings for the reform of weights and measures	599	Address of the Magistrates, &c. of Dumfermling, N° R x.	632
		A state of the revenues and public income of England, 5,691,803 l. 3 s. 4 d. N° S x.	636
			A state

	Page.		Page.
A state of the debts of England, 17,763,842 l .	641	Dissentient in the House of Peers of England to the Articles of the Union, N ^o O x x.	680
17 l . 3 ½ d. N ^o T x.	641	Dissentient to the 9th Article	680
A state of the public revenue of Scotland, 160,000 l . N ^o U x.	645	Dissentient to the 15th Article	681
Debts due to the Army, Civil List, and other charges of Government, about 160,000 l .	645	Dissentient to the 22d Article	681
Net annual produce of the Customs in England, 1,341,559 l . W x.	646	Proceedings and dissentients in the House of Lords of England on the Act of Union	683
Duties on coals 110,958 l .	648	Petition of the Owners of ships now arrived at London to the convention of Royal boroughs, on their ships and cargoes being seized, N ^o A 3.	683
Proportions of the present Customs of Scotland with those of England, N ^o X x.	648	Address of the Royal boroughs to her Majesty, on seizing the ships and cargoes in the Thames which brought in goods, which had not paid Duty, N ^o B 3.	684
Net annual produce of the Excise on beer and ale in England 677,765 l .	651	The clause proposed in the English Act of Parliament to prevent French goods being imported through Scotland, N ^o C 3.	686
Proportions of the present Excise upon liquors in Scotland with those in England N ^o Y x.	651	Address of the Scotch merchants at London against passing the bill, N ^o D 3.	687
Proportion of the encrease of the Customs and Excise of Scotland according to the stating of the equivalent, Z x.	652	Observations upon the 4th Article of Union, N ^o E 3.	686
Overture concerning the debts of the African Indian Company, N ^o A x x.	654	Commission and proclamation naming justices of peace within Scotland N ^o F 3.	692
A proclamation against all tumultuary and irregular meetings, and convocations of the Lieldges, N ^o B x x.	658	Copy of her Majesty's Commission to the justices, N ^o E 3.	693
Mémoires for the Honourable estates of Parliament, N ^o C x x.	660	An act for rendering the Union more entire and complete, N ^o H 3.	696
Act against all musters and rendezvous during the present sitting of Parliament, N ^o D x x.	661	A proclamation concerning English coin N ^o I 3.	699
List of those who voted for and against the first Article of the Union, N ^o F x x.	622	Proclamation calling in the Scots Crown; old and new, the forty, twenty and ten shilling pieces, to be recoined, N ^o K 3.	701
List of voters for and against the proclamation discharging unwarrantable and seditious convocations, E x x.	666	Articles granted to King Edward to perfect the marriage between his son Prince Edward and Margaret Queen of Scots N ^o 1.	702
Threatening letters sent to the Duke of Queensberry in the time of the rabbles, N ^o G. x x.	669	Copy of the licence of pope Nicholas for a marriage between Edward the son of Edward the 1st and Margaret of Norway, Queen of Scotland, N ^o 2.	707
An Act for securing the church of England H x x.	673	Copy of two letters of Edward I. to Eric King of Norway concerning the marriage, N ^o 3.	708
Act settling the manner of electing the 16 Peers, and 45 Commoners; to represent Scotland, N ^o I x x.	672	Commission appointing Commissioners on the part of Scotland to treat of the match, N ^o 4.	709
Protest of George Lockhart, respecting the Peers, N ^o K x x.	676	Letter from the King of Norway to Edward I. appointing Commissioners on his part, N ^o 5.	710
Protest of the Duke of Athol respecting the Peers and Representatives, N ^o L x x.	676	Letter	710
Protest of the Earl of Buchan respecting the Peers, N ^o M x x.	679
Protest of Walter Stuart respecting the Representatives, N ^o N x x.	679

	Page.		Page.
Letter of Edward I. on appointing Commissioners to treat of the state of the kingdom, N ^o 6	711	by James I. respecting a Union, N ^o 12	717
Copy of the order of Edward I. for the payment of 5000 marks, in arrear to the Pope, for the purpose of inducing him to forward the match between his son and Margaret of Norway, Queen of Scotland, N ^o 8	713	Copy of a paper of the Scots Commissioners for adjusting the trade between the two kingdoms, Jan. 21, 1667	715
Two other papers relating to the treaty, N ^o 9, 10	713	Journal of the proceedings of the Commissioners in 1702	728
Copy of a paper written by Edward Ift, shewing the advantages which wou'd accrue to Scotland from the match, also promising them a free trade to all the parts of England, paying the usual Duties, N ^o 11	715	Lord Keeper's speech, and the Duke of Queenberry's answer, to the Commissioners	702, 729
Proceedings of the Commissioners appointed		The Queen's letter to the Commissioners	730
		The Queen's speech to the Commissioners, Dec. 14, 1702	738
		The Queen's letter to the Commissioners adjourning them from Feb 3, 1702-3, to Oct. 4. They never met again	751

J. STOCKDALE, having purchased the remaining Copies of the following beautiful and useful Work, proposes to sell them at the reduced Price of 8s. 6d. in Boards.

FRANCISCI GODWINI primò Landavenfis dein Herefordensis Episcopi de Præsulibus Angliæ Commentarius, omnium Episcoporum necnon & Cardinalium ejusdem Gentis Nomina, Tempora, Seriem, atque Actiones maximè memorabiles, ab ultimâ Antiquitate repitata complexus. Ad Fidem Monumentorum in Archivis Regiis, Lamethanis, &c. &c. recognovit, plurimis in locis (adjectis Annotationibus) ad veritatem reduxit, & perpetuâ demum Serie ad præsens usque Sæculum continuavit GUL. RICHARDSON, S. T. P. Coll. Emman. Cant. Magister, & Eccl. Lincoln. Canonicus. Cantabrigiæ, Typis Academicis excudebat Josephus Bentham, 1743.

New Books printed for JOHN STOCKDALE.

This Day is Published,

Elegantly printed in three large volumes, 8vo. price 1*l*. 1*s*. half-bound and lettered,

THE DEBATES AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, during the second Session of the Sixteenth Parliament of Great-Britain.

The Publisher returns his sincere thanks to those numerous Gentlemen (Members of Parliament and others) who have so kindly aided him in the completion of this useful and accurate detail of the proceedings in the last Session of Parliament. He will not presume to enter into any commendation of them, fully convinced that their own merit, from the accuracy with which they have been taken, and the attention given them, will sufficiently recommend them to his numerous friends and the public.

Piccadilly, Nov. 3. 1785.

Lately published,

THE DEBATES of the first session of the present Parliament, in three large volumes, 8vo. price 1*0*s. 6*d*. half-bound and lettered.

Also the DEBATES of the last Session of the late Parliament, in 6 vols. 8vo. price 1*l*. 1*1*s. 6*d*. half-bound and lettered.

Just Published,

In two large vols. 4to. elegantly bound in calf, gilt, and lettered, Price 1*l*. 2*s*.

A COMPLETE GEOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY, OR UNIVERSAL GAZETTEER, of Ancient and Modern Geography, containing a full, particular, and accurate description of the known world in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America; comprising a complete system of geography, illustrated with correct maps and beautiful views of the principal cities, &c. and chronological tables of the Sovereigns of Europe. The geographical parts by JOHN SEALLY, A. M. member of the Roman academy; author of the Histoire Chronologique, sacrée et profane; Elements of Geography and Astronomy, &c. &c. interspersed with extracts from the private manuscripts of one of the officers who accompanied Captain Cook in his voyage to the Southern Hemisphere. The astronomical parts from the papers of the late Mr. ISRAEL LYONS, of Cambridge astronomer in Lord MULGRAVE's voyage to the Northern Hemisphere.

This

NEW BOOKS.

This Day is published, Price 1 ⁵/_s. in Boards,

STOCKDALE'S EDITION of SHAKSPEARE: including, in ONE VOLUME 8vo, the whole of his dramatic works; with explanatory notes, compiled from various commentators; to which are prefixed, his Life and Will.

"Nature her pencil to his hand commits,

"And then in all her forms to this great Master fits."

ADDRESS TO THE PUBLIC.

A new edition of SHAKSPEARE, and an edition of so singular a form as the present, in which all his Plays are comprehended in one volume, will perhaps appear surprising to many readers; but, upon a little reflection, their surprise will, the Editor doubts not, be converted into approbation.

Much as SHAKSPEARE has been read of late years, and largely as the admiration and study of him have been extended, there is still a numerous class of men to whom he is very imperfectly known. Many of the middling and lower ranks of the inhabitants of this country are either not acquainted with him at all, excepting by name, or have only seen a few of his plays, which have accidentally fallen in their way. It is to supply the wants of these persons that the present edition is principally undertaken; and it cannot fail of becoming to them a perpetual source of entertainment and instruction.

But the instruction that may be drawn from SHAKSPEARE is equal to the entertainment which his writings afford. He is the greatest master of human nature, and of human life, that perhaps ever existed; so that we cannot peruse his works without having our understandings considerably enlarged. To promote, therefore, the knowledge of him is to contribute to general improvement.

Nor is the utility of the present publication confined to persons of the rank already described; it will be found serviceable even to those whose situation in life hath enabled them to purchase all the expensive editions of our great dramatist. The book now offered to the public may commodiously be taken in to a coach or a post-chaise, for amusement in a journey. It is a compendium, not an abridgment, of the noblest of our poets, and a library in a single volume.

The Editor hath endeavoured to give all the perfection to this work which the nature of it can admit. The account of his life, which is taken from Rowe, and his last will, in reality, comprehend almost every thing that is known with regard to the personal history of SHAKSPEARE.

The notes which are subjoined are such as were necessary for the purpose of illustrating and explaining obsolete words, unusual phrases, old customs, and obscure or distant allusions. In short, it has been the Editor's aim to omit nothing which may serve to render SHAKSPEARE intelligible to every capacity, and to every class of readers.

Gentlemen in the country finding a difficulty in procuring the above valuable Work, by directing a line to Mr. Stockdale, opposite Burlington-house, Piccadilly, (appointing the payment thereof in London) shall have it immediately forwarded (carriage-paid) to any part of Great Britain.